What Is Title I?

- Title I is the largest Federal assistance program for our nation's schools.
- The program serves millions of children in elementary and secondary schools each year.
- The goal of Title I is to provide instructional services and activities that support students in meeting state performance standards.

Questions You May Have About Title I

- Which schools does Title I serve?
- How does our school receive Title I money?
- What will Title I do for my child?
- How can I assist my child?

Which schools does Title I serve?

The program serves children in elementary and secondary schools that have demonstrated that extra assistance is needed. Title I also serves children who attend parochial and private schools.

Your school has been provided this presentation because it is currently a Title I school.

How does our school receive Title I money?

1

2

The Federal government provides funding to each state and State education agencies distribute this money to districts. The money each school receives is determined by the need of its students.

How does our school receive Title I money?

3

Schools identify students that need the most educational assistance. set goals for improving their skills, and develop programs to support/supplement regular classroom instruction. Examples of these plans are the School Improvement Plan and the Parental Involvement Plan.

What will Title I do for my child?

The program will provide your child with extra educational assistance beyond the regular classroom.

Just a few examples are:

- Additional teachers and aides
- Professional development for school staff
- Extra time for teaching Title I students skills
- A variety of supplementary teaching methods
- Additional teaching materials to supplement regular instruction
- Extended Media Center Hours
- Various Parental Involvement Opportunities

How can I assist my child?

You can influence the success of your child more than any teacher or federal program. By becoming an active participant in our parental involvement activities at our school, you will:

- ✓ Serve as a role model, showing your child that you support his/her education.
- ✓ Assure that you are aware of your child's progress
- ✓ Teach your student that your input at the school is appreciated and that you support its efforts

And . . .

How can I assist my child?

. . Research shows that how well a child does in school depends on how much their parent get involved in their education.

Ways you can be involved are:

- ✓ Support school extra-curricular activities
- ✓ Volunteer at your school (ADDitions)
- ✓ Communicating with your child's teacher
- ✓ Attend Parent-Teacher Conferences
- ✓ Discuss ideas for parental involvement with your child's teacher and parent organizations

YOU

A PERFECT COMBINATION
